Short Summary:

Petition Results – Emerald/Crown Royal Island Parking Service

Voting:

Corporate Vote - Unweighted

Memorandum:

The Cariboo Regional District recently conducted a petition to determine if property owners of the Emerald and Crown Royal Islands at Lac La Hache wished to participate in a parking service after being approached by a group of owners requesting said service. The petition passed and the results are attached to this item. The Certificate of Sufficiency will be forwarded to the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing so that it may provide provincial approval of the service establishment bylaw, which will then come before the Board for consideration of adoption.

Several property owners both for and against the establishment of this parking service have written in to the Board; those letters are also attached. Some personal information has been redacted under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Attachments:

- 1) Certificate of Sufficiency
- 2) Various letters from property owners
