Office of Primary Responsibility: Communications Department
Date Adopted: July 2015	Board Resolution Number: 2015-7-66	Date to be Reviewed:
Manner Issued: CRD Policy Manual

PURPOSE:

To establish how centralized public budget consultation meeting information will be available to the public.

POLICY:

That the Board discontinue the centralized public budget consultation meetings and instead have the information available on the CRD website as well as having a copy available for public viewing at the front counter of the CRD offices and libraries.

In years where a substantial budgetary increase is anticipated, staff in the Communications and Finance departments may make recommendations to the area director(s) on providing further public information or consultation, such as specific public meetings, mailers or social media posts.

POLICY STATEMENT:

To have a policy in place to provide guidelines regarding how centralized public budget consultation meeting information will be available to the public.
