RE: Bylaw Request – Community Health Record Project

Dear Mr. Erickson:

Northern Health would like to formally request funding for the Cariboo-Chilcotin
Regional Hospital District's (CCRHD) share of the remainder of the Community Health Record Project.

The purpose of the Community Health Record projects is to implement a single Electronic Medical Record to support clinical workflow for primary and community care as provided under the functional areas of Public Health, Mental Health & Substance Use, Regional Chronic Disease and Home & Community Care.

This project has a large scope and was split into three phases to better manage the work:
- Phase 1: Primary Care Clinics and Business Requirements
- Phase 2: Public Health, Regional Chronic Disease and Interprofessional Teams
- Phase 3: Mental Health/Home & Community Care/Reporting

Phases 1 and 2 are complete, and Phase 3 is underway. Funding of $105,934 has already been provided, and additional funding of $47,322 is being requested as follows:

Community Health Record Project

Phase 1	$	2,626,754
Phase 2	$	3,160,432
Phase 3	$	4,900,000
	$	10,687,186
RHD Funding 40%	$	4,274,874
CCRHD funding 3.585%	$	153,256
Less: Bylaw #123	-$	105,934
This Request:	$	47,322

Thank you for your consideration of this request. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Sincerely,
