BC Rural and First Nations Health and Wellness Summit

To our Advisory Group Team:

Thank you once again for bringing your ideas and perspectives to our Summit Advisory Group. As promised, we have attached a link to the report from the Summit. This includes some examples we have seen shift directly as a result of the time and energy that you gave to us all. You will have received this also as a participant at the summit and we would invite you to please share widely with the organizations you may be representing and welcome any additional learning or commitments that your teams may want to move into action.

We at RCCbc look forward to building on the day and working to improve Healthcare in BC. Please feel free to loop back to us should your team wish to discuss ideas or opportunities.

Please view our three Speaker's Corner videos from the summit as well. They can be found here.

Please view our report here.

Speaker's Corner

Attendees volunteered to participate in a Virtual Speaker's Corner after their group sessions.
Hear what your fellow participants are thinking about rural healthcare in BC!

- What is a Key Component needed to make your ideal model of Rural Health and Wellness successful?
- What top two things stood out to you about what is currently working in regard to access to care, quality, and efficiency?
- What is a Key Priority you would like to see actioned in the next year?
