Linda called the meeting to order at 10:15am with 21 members present.

Susan read the minutes of the semi-annual meeting held Jan 16th, 2019. Hazel moved & Joyce 2nd that the minutes be adopted as read. Motion passed.

Treasurer's report:

Dianne presented a comprehensive financial report for the period of Sept 1,2018-June17th,2019.

Closing balance was $1368.13 plus $10,000 term deposit for a total of $11368.13.

Rene moved & Celia 2nd that the treasurers report be adopted as presented. Carried.

Old Business:

Celeste brought a basket and Diane will look after getting it filled with items for the Bridge Lake Fair challenge. Members can donate items if they wish. Bev will donate the rulers back for the basket.

New Business

Arts council will not be giving out any money this year as they have lost their funding.

We should approach the Legion and the Lions club for money donations. Paula motioned that we apply to both the Legion and the Lions club for grants. 2nd by Cindy. Carried.

Mini Retreat should be put on hold for next year as well as a lunch with the ladies from Deka lake.

There is a Barriere Quilt Show on July 25,2019. Anyone who is interested can display quilts.

At the end of 2018 we had donated 111 quilts to the hospital.

We had 19 on hand making the total quilts 130. At the end of this quilting year we have donated a total of 132 quilts with 18 on hand making a total of 150.

No library reports

Preemie Quilts:

29 preemie quilts on hand. Marion happy with the designs that members are making.

Arts Council:

We will keep membership

Christmas Party:

Christmas party went well. Everyone had a great time.

Quilt Show:

Dancing quilts confirmed. Ibeas have paid. Quiltabilities and R&R not confirmed. Will ask Diversity if R&R does not respond.

Paula has finished the quilting on the raffle quilt. A photo of the quilt to be taken by Celeste in a natural surrounding with LCQ members. Celeste will design big poster. Faith will hang quilt in store when not being shown.

We need a special quilt show meeting in July 2020 before the show, so we know who is working with each coordinator.

In September at our first meeting have discussion with quilt show committee leaders.

Members need to wear their quilt show attire for the photo.

Susan priced out raffle tickets from Topline. 2500 tickets in books of 10, black on white, 1 sided, numbered, perforated & stapled is $300. Will get a price for 1500 & 2000.

Designate part of our regular sewing day for making door prize items for quilt show.

Every so many door entry tickets will be marked for door prizes.

Paula & Karen are organizing a retreat at Cache Creek Oct 7-10 for 3 nights. Cost is $90-$100 per day. Includes meals & room.

Susan will email minutes to all members.

We want to thank you for the beautiful bag + quilt that Don was given after his chemo on Thursday. It's the perfect size, he also wears the socks to bed and loves them.

Most sincerely
Don + Bonnie
