

building communities together

2023 Business Plan Quesnel Search and Rescue Contribution Service (1377)

Stephanie Masun, Manager of Emergency Program Services

Working in partnership with communities large and small to offer local, sub-regional, and regional services to ensure that the Cariboo Chilcotin is a socially, economically, and environmentally desirable region.

Department/Function Services

The Cariboo Regional District Quesnel Search and Rescue contribution service was established in 2007, by Bylaw No. 4296, by means of an alternative approval process in accordance with Section 801.3 of the Local Government Act. Taxation is based on land and improvements. The maximum amount of money that may be requisitioned in any one year, for the service provided, shall not exceed the greater of $12,250 or an amount raised by applying a tax rate of $0.0144/$1,000 to the net taxable value of land and improvements in the service area.

The Quesnel Search and Rescue organization is a group of dedicated volunteers that perform their activities at the request of the RCMP.

Electoral Areas A, B, C, and I participate in this service and the Directors of the same electoral areas are responsible for the governance of this contribution service.

Business Plan Goals, Rationale & Strategies

Goal: Obtain a copy of Quesnel Search and Rescue's annual financial report.

Rationale: To ensure transparency of funds provided.

Strategy: Staff to communicate with appropriate liaison.

Significant Issues & Trends

Recruitment and retention are the most significant issues for search and rescue volunteer groups throughout the Province.