Short Summary:

Cariboo Regional District Directors' Remuneration and Expenses Bylaw No. 5415, 2022

Voting:

Corporate Vote - Unweighted

Memorandum:

As the Board goes through the budgeting process and it is apparent that costs are escalating in several areas that we have no control over, the Chair has suggested that the Board look at cost savings in regard to shorter meetings in its remuneration bylaw. The current bylaw doesn't include a ½ day rate for sanctioned business meetings such as Board meetings, Committee of the Whole meetings, and Finance/Budget Committee meetings. Adding a reduced meeting rate for meetings that last less than four hours would enable the Regional District to realize some savings in the Administration Budget.

This item would normally be taken to the Policy Committee prior to the Board, but in the interest of time savings during the budgeting process, it is included on today's Board agenda. A Policy Committee meeting will not be scheduled until the new year.
