

OVERVIEW OF FOREST LANDSCAPE PLANNING IN THE CARIBOO

Overview presentation CRD – Feb 24, 2023

WHY BC IS LOOKING AT FOREST LANDSCAPE PLANS...

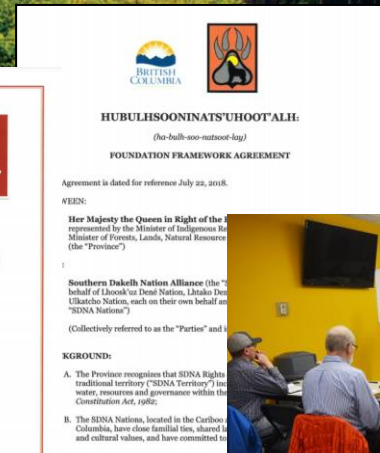

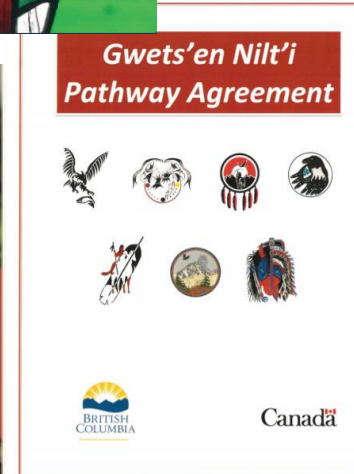

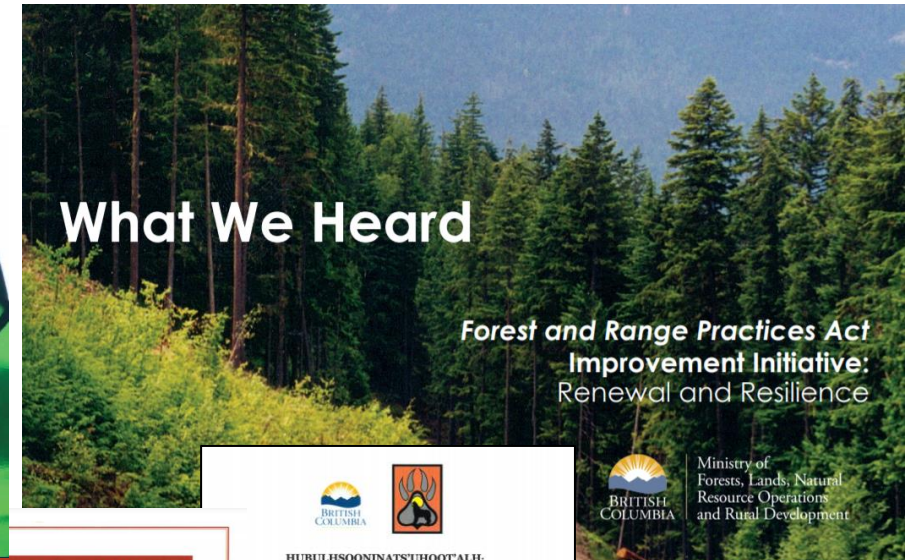

Response to challenges in the BC forest sector:

Reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples

Sustainability issues: climate change, cumulative impacts, timber supply challenges and increasing disturbance on the land base

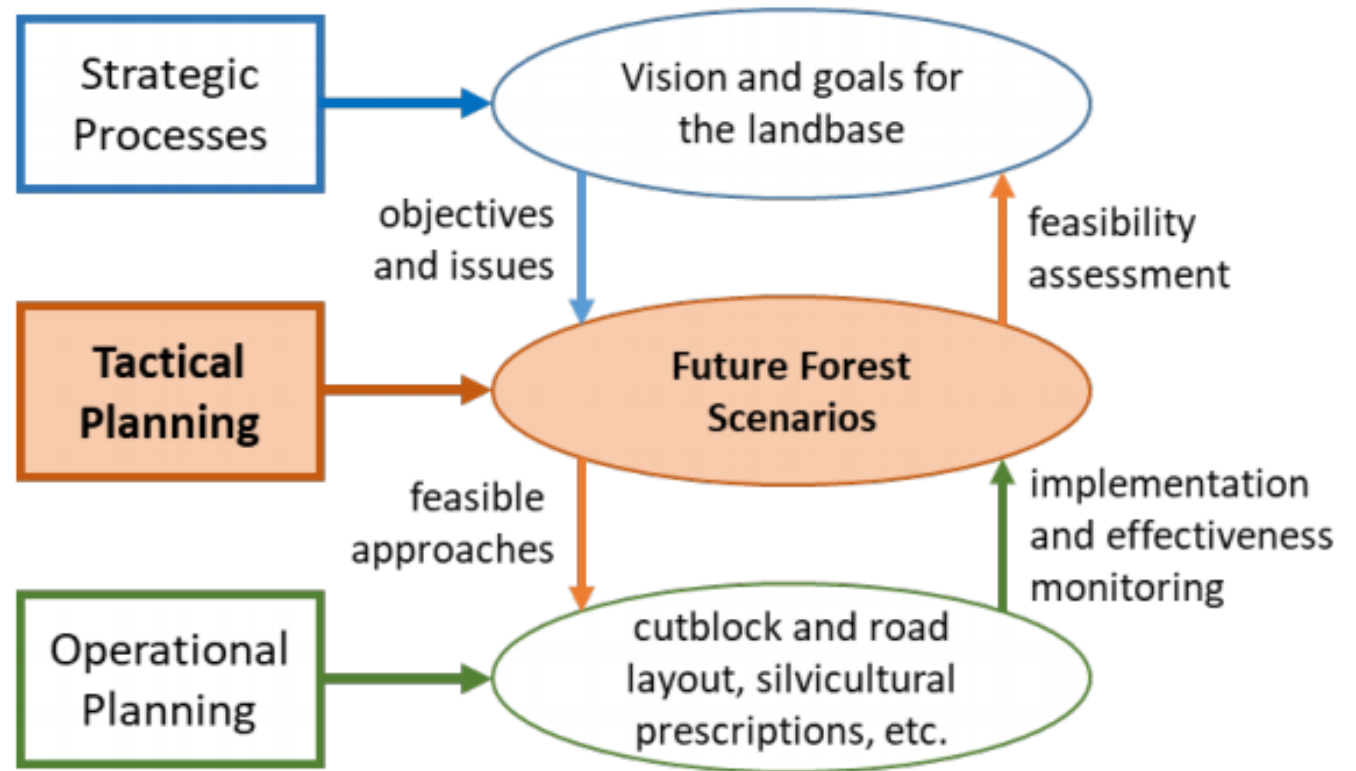

Changing societal values and expectations

Numerous stewardship initiatives and planning projects that could be contained under one planning envelope

THE BRIDGE BETWEEN STRATEGIC AND OPERATIONAL PLANS

- Forest Landscape Plans (Tactical Plans) will help provide:
 - Inclusivity and cooperation
 - Integration
 - Short-term direction to meet long term sustainable goals
 - Continual improvement and learning

OUT OF SCOPE

HOW WE HOPE TO INFORM THE QUESNEL FLP

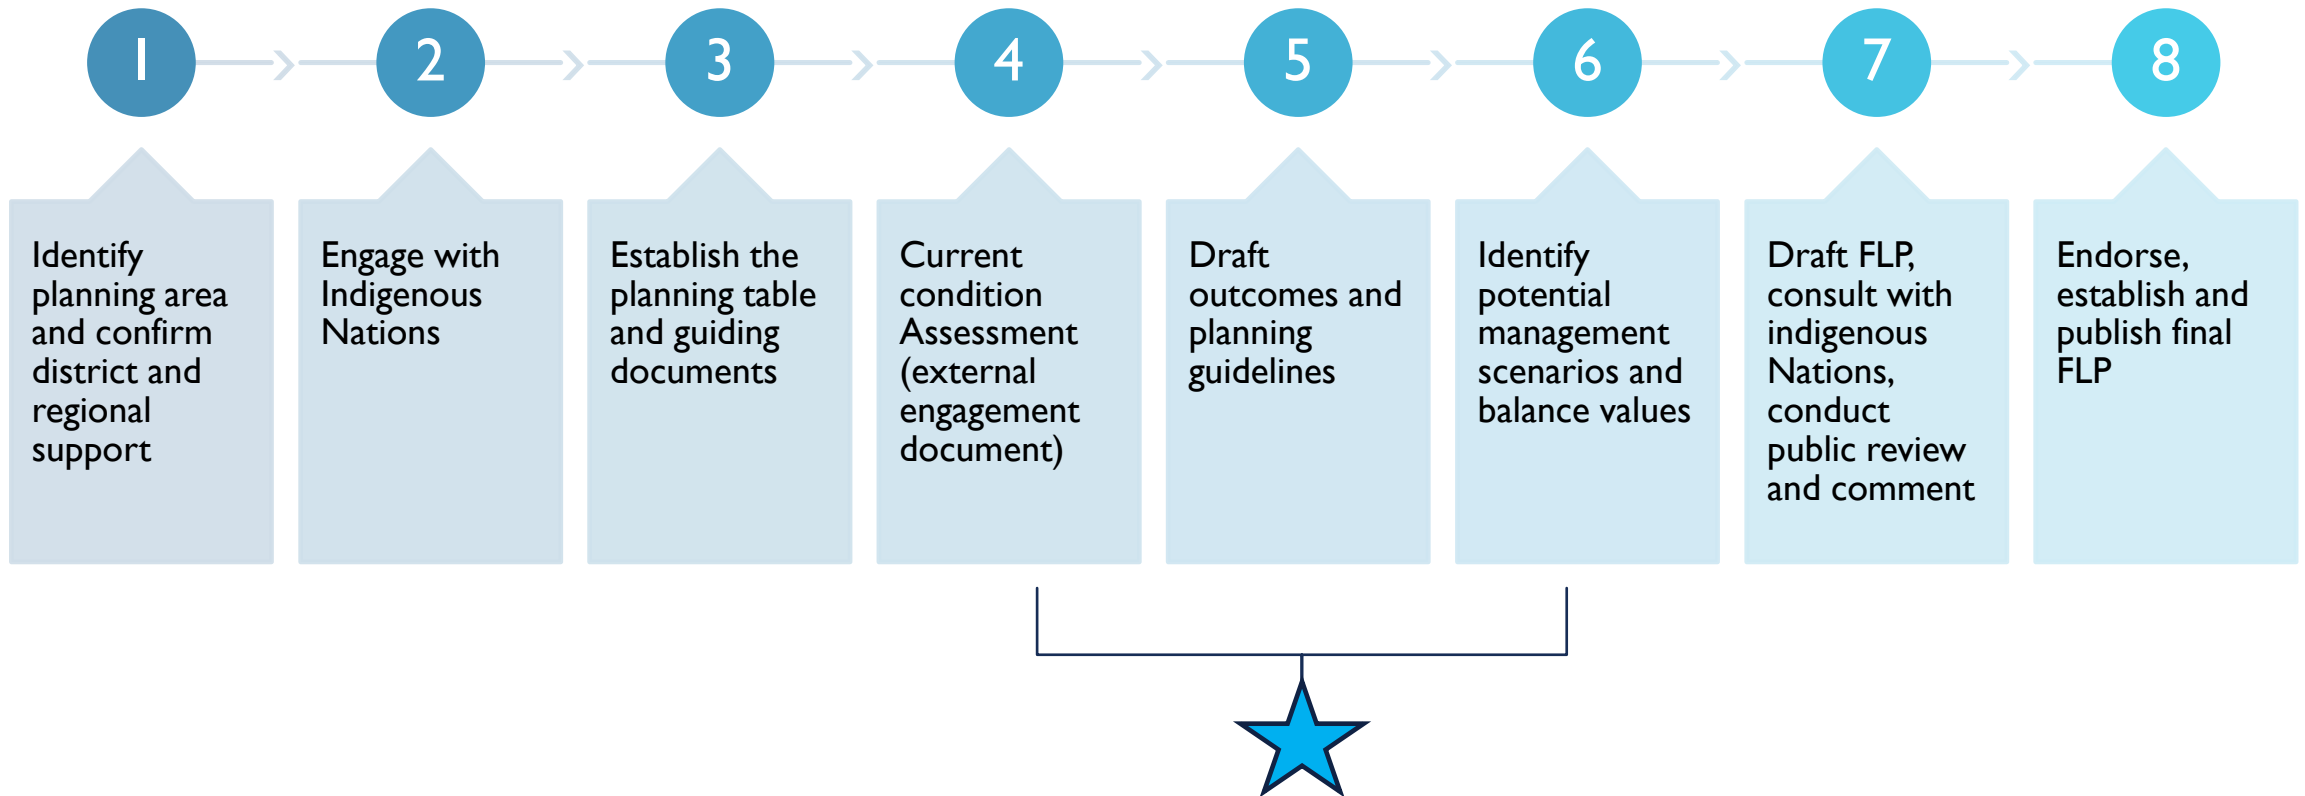

QUESNEL FLP HIGHLIGHTS

- Focus on building trust and a process that works:
 - FLP Scope and process
 - Topics of Priority
 - Nation2Nation focused direction
 - Technical Working Groups Established
 - Public engagement planning ongoing
 - Advisory group under way
- Focus on listening to remain flexible and ensure transparency in the process – G2G process – sharing ownership

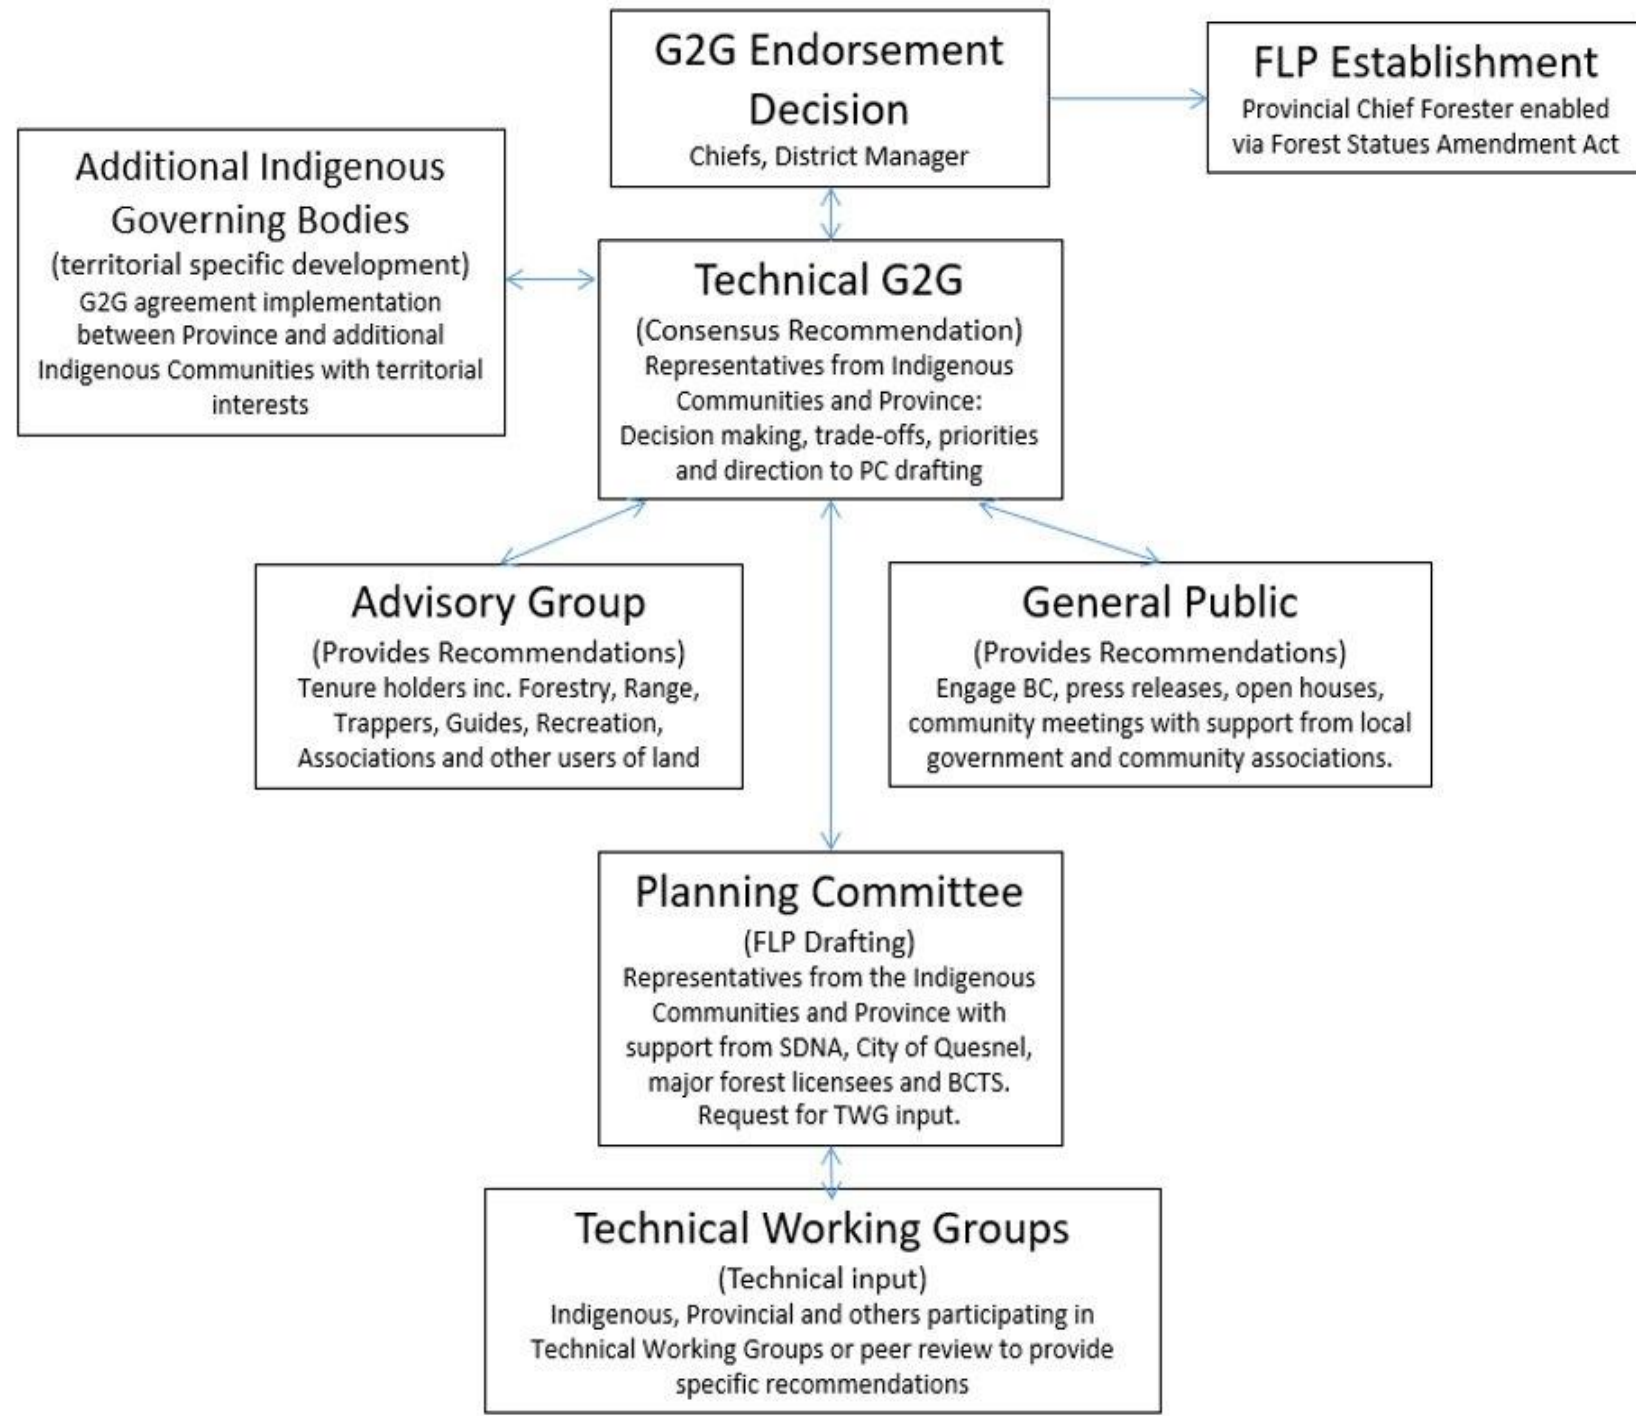

WHERE ARE WE IN THE QUESNEL PROCESS?

QUESNEL'S STRUCTURE (ONGOING EVOLUTION)

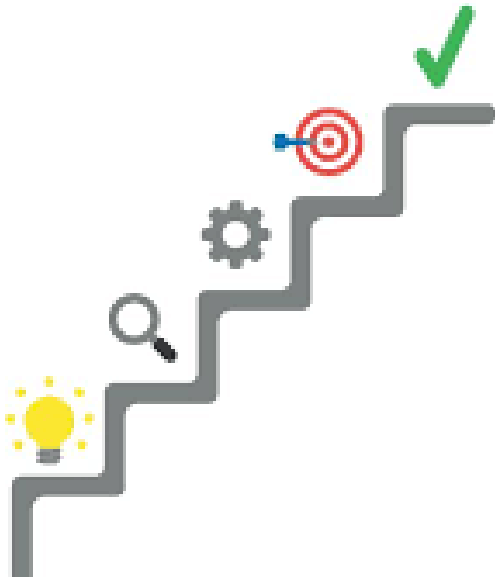

- Role for G2G discussions
- Role for G2G leads with key reps (licensees, local gov, additional provincial reps)
- Role for Subject Matter Experts
- Role for other Interested Parties
- Role for the Public
- Role for Additional Indigenous Nation
- Various levels and structures of decisions throughout process

WHAT ARE OUR NEXT STEPS?

- Continue to work Government with Government on Quesnel pilot
 - Focus on outcomes and planning guidelines through the TWGs
 - Monthly Planning Committee meetings to draft FLP
 - Start scenario analysis
 - Continue seeking public and interested party's input
 - Managing timeline expectations and trying to maintain flexibility
- Share learnings on the Quesnel experience (IGB, Prov. Gov., stakeholders, etc.)
- Explore readiness for new projects with Indigenous Governments across Cariboo Region

QUESNEL FLP PILOT ASK OF CARIBOO REGIONAL DISTRICT...

Public Engagement:

- Do you wish to be involved in the public engagement process?
- If yes, to what extent do you want to be involved?
 - Social Media outreach
 - Open houses
 - Engagement planning
 - Other?
