Memorandum:

This building permit was originally issued on August 23, 2010, for the construction of a single-wide mobile home. An inspector visited the property to do a footing/other inspection September 1, 2010, no one was on site and a copy of the report was mailed to the property owner; no further inspections were called for. The permit was extended once and expired on April 12, 2014. Attempts to contact the property owner have been unsuccessful and the property owner has made no attempt to call for further inspections or renew the building permit.

Financial Implications:

Cost to file a Notice in the Land Title Office is $74.87. Once the required documents are received and deficiencies are rectified, the Notice may be removed by the Cariboo Regional District upon receipt of a $350.00 fee per the current Building Bylaw.

Policy Implications:

Although there are no policies relating to filing of Notices, the Board has dealt with a number of building bylaw contraventions by filing Notices. It has proven successful over time in resolving many of these situations.

Alignment with Strategic Plan:

- ☒ Communication: Facilitate communication strategies throughout the entire Cariboo Regional District that meet the needs of residents, community stakeholders, and other levels of government.

- ☒ Planning: Intentionally plan services and activities of the CRD to prepare for future needs of residents and community stakeholders.
- ☐ Economic Sustainability: Foster an environment to ensure the economic sustainability of CRD communities and the region.
- ☒ Governance: Ensure that CRD governance policy and practices are intentional, transparent, and respectful.
