POLICY:

Donation Request Campaigns

The Cariboo Regional District Board may from time to time, by resolution, authorize a campaign to request public donations towards a specific project, service or other undertaking of the regional district. Without limiting the foregoing, the Board may, by resolution, stipulate the types of donations (ie, monetary, or specific goods and/or services), that the Board deems appropriate and may further provide for the special recognition of benefactors, or certain classifications of benefactors.

No staff member, other individual or group is authorized to solicit public donations on behalf of the Cariboo Regional District without benefit of a Board resolution to that effect. Exceptions to the aforementioned are solicitations for non-monetary donations that do not exceed $500 in value. (For example, solicitations for material donations on behalf of a CRD Library for the express purpose of conducting a summer reading program.)
