Memorandum:

UBCM is accepting applications for the 2023 Community Emergency Preparedness Fund (CEPF) Indigenous Cultural Safety and Humility Training funding stream. Emergency Program Services staff propose submitting an application for $30,000 to:

- build relationships with the First Nations communities whose traditional territory the Cariboo Regional District falls within
- collaborate with all First Nation communities to develop inclusive training and protocols that respect cultural safety and humility for all four phases of emergency management

Alignment with Strategic Plan:

- Infrastructure and Asset Management: To establish a systematic, predictable approach to managing the regional district's assets and infrastructure that builds on current asset management data and condition assessments.
- Enhanced Communications and Engagement: To build trust and credibility of the regional district by enhancing our communications and engagement with citizens, stakeholders, and volunteers.

- Effective and Responsive Land Use Planning and Development: To ensure our land use planning and development is responsive to future growth and housing needs, anticipates risks and hazards associated with climate change and provides efficient and consistent processes for landowners and developers.
- Relationships with First Nations: To foster a healthy and inclusive region by building and strengthening our relationships with First Nations and embracing the principles of reconciliation.
