Dear Cariboo Regional District Board of Directors:

The makeup of the Cariboo Regional District Agriculture Advisory Committee (ADAC) for 2024 is as follows:

ADAC has 8 members whose terms continue until December 2024:

- Jennifer Roberts, representing the Quesnel Cattlemen's Association,
- Martin Rossmann, representing the Kersley Farmers Institute,
- Robin Hunt, representing Farmers' Markets,
- Lynda Atkinson, representing the Regional Food and Innovation Hub,
- Gillian Watt, representing a Post-Secondary Institute,
- Tammy Briggs, representing Horticulture and Greenhouse Production,
- Cynthia Fell, representing Indigenous Governments,
- Tyrone Johnston, representing Agribusiness,

Members Megan Flatt, representing the Cariboo Chilcotin Sheep Producers Association, and David Zirnhelt, representing the Cariboo Cattlemen's Association, will be renewing their terms. Their new term will run from January 2024 to December 2025.

Liaisons Nicole Pressy (Ministry of Agriculture and Food) and Director John Massier remain in their vital roles supporting the committee.

The committee has also sent a separate letter to the CRD Board of Directors, care of Planning Services, with a new member recommendation.

The nomination of the new member, along with returning & continuing members, would bring the committee total to 11.

The election of executives will take place at the January 2024 meeting of the committee.

The committee thanks the CRD Board of Directors for their continued support and the acknowledgement of the importance of the Agriculture Industry across the region.

Regards,

Cariboo Agricultural Development Advisory Committee

Dear Cariboo Regional District Board of Directors:

The Cariboo Regional District Agriculture Development Advisory Committee passed a motion at the Dec 20th, 2023, meeting, to recommend Chad Stump as a committee member representing Urban First Nation Advocacy.

ADAC is pleased to recommend Chad Stump as a member of ADAC. Mr. Stump works with ECHEN Deni Urban Nation Roots.

ECHEN Deni Urban Nation Roots works with First Nation partners and stakeholders, including local government and landowners, to encourage and enable the farming of ALR lands with a focus on the preservation of agricultural land and a focus on the encouragement of farming as a provincial interest that will bring great benefit for our community.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Regards,

Cariboo Agricultural Development Advisory Committee
