Ice and Dry Floor Scheduling and Recreation Pass Policies

All facility user groups are required to enter into contracts in September of each year to allow for efficient ice scheduling.

All arena ice users must be in possession of a valid Recreation Access Pass in order to utilize the South Cariboo Recreation Centre during the ice season, with the following exceptions:

- public skating and drop-in activities which will be open to all members of the public and subject to the two-tiered non-resident rate system;
- tournaments involving out-of-town teams;
- school use of the facility as defined by the joint use agreement between the Cariboo Regional District and School District #27;

All curling rink users must be in possession of a valid Recreation Access Pass in order to utilize the South Cariboo Curling Rink during the ice season, with the exception of public drop-in curling which will be open to all members of the public.

Organized sports conducted during the off-season (i.e. ball hockey) shall also be subject to the provisions of this policy.

During the off-season, special event or non-sporting related rentals are not covered by this policy.

Field Rentals Recreation Access Pass Policy

All field users must be in possession of a valid Recreation Pass in order to utilize the South Cariboo ball fields during the season.

The policy applies to any organized use of the fields, including, but not limited to, all organized league activities, but excluding public drop-in use or tournaments involving out-of-town teams.

4. Annual Recreation Access Passes

The objective of the Recreation Access Pass policy is to ensure that residents within the areas which contribute to the South Cariboo Recreation Services function Bylaw No 4617 through taxation do not subsidize participation by residents from non-contributing areas.

Recreation Access Passes may be obtained attending the South Cariboo Recreation Centre or other appropriate office during regular business hours with proper identification (i.e. BC Driver's License) and proof of residence in the form of either a property tax/assessment notice or a utility bill showing the property address.

All persons residing or owning property within the contributing taxation area may obtain their Recreation Access Passes free of charge.

Residents living outside the taxation boundary must purchase a Recreation Access Pass. The cost of Recreation Access Passes for South Cariboo Recreation Facilities* are:

Household Recreation Pass - $220 per year

As of 2016, there is no longer an individual rate for the purchase of recreation passes.

* Recreation Passes allow access to the South Cariboo Recreation Centre, the South Cariboo Curling Rink, Lumberman's and Robinson park ball fields and the 100 Mile Soccer Park fields as well as enrollment in recreational programs at member prices.

 Where a household recreation pass is purchased, each member of the household shall be identified and issued an individual Recreation Pass.

Passes are valid from April 1st to March 31st of each calendar year. The full cost to purchase a pass will be charged for the complete year or any portion thereof.

Community Adult and/or Youth Organizations

All persons wishing to participate, as part of a community adult and/or youth league or organization that utilizes the South Cariboo Recreation Facilities must hold a valid annual Recreation Access Pass before registering and submitting fees to the league or organization. Organizations include, but are not limited to minor hockey, figure skating, adult hockey teams, curling clubs, soccer, fastball, and slo-pitch.

All organizations utilizing the South Cariboo Recreation Facilities will submit membership lists containing the names, addresses (including postal codes) and telephone numbers of all participants together with each individual's Recreation Access Pass number to the appropriate facility manager.

Current membership lists for each organization will be submitted prior to January 31st and September 1st in each year.

Non-Compliance

Any organization utilizing the South Cariboo Recreation Facilities will ensure that all participants hold a current annual Recreation Access Pass prior to registering these individuals as members within their organization.

Organizations failing to ensure that participants hold a current annual Recreation Access Pass may be penalized or denied access to the facility.

Penalties

One member within an organization that does not hold a valid Recreation Access Pass - $300 penalty.

Second or additional members within an organization that do not hold a valid Recreation Access Pass - $400 penalty for each incident.

Penalties are levied against the organization booking the facility.

5. Recreational Lands

The Lumberman's and Robinson Park ball fields adjacent to the South Cariboo Recreation Centre are managed, including scheduling, by 100 Mile Development Corp under a five-year agreement (2025-2030). Field maintenance is done by the District of 100 Mile House.

The South Cariboo Equestrian Grounds are managed, including scheduling and maintenance, by the 100 Mile and District Outriders Club under a five-year Use and Occupancy agreement (2023-2027). Fees for the grounds are established by the club.

6. Advertising

All advertising sales within the arena portion of the South Cariboo Recreation Centre are now an exclusive holding of the 100 Mile Wranglers Junior B Hockey Club under a Use and Occupancy Agreement (April 2022-March 2027).
